

25 YEARS IN IRELAND

$12.5bn

Intel's overall investment in the Intel Campus

25 YEARS CAPITAL EXPENDITURE

€8.2bn

GVA* contribution through capital investment

76,460
Irish Job Years

ANNUAL OPERATIONAL EXPENDITURE

€550m

GVA* contribution through operational expenditure

4,010
FTE jobs

ANNUAL ECONOMIC & SOCIAL BENEFITS

€1.3m

contribution to education

€500k
to community & charitable support

*Gross value add
Full-time equivalent

SO WHAT DOES THIS INVESTMENT MEAN FOR IRELAND?

€880m contributed to the Irish economy and 7,068 jobs supported each year 756 Irish suppliers supported in Ireland by Intel since 2007

INTEL IRELAND MILESTONES

25 YEARS OF intel
IN IRELAND

1989

Ireland selected as Intel's European manufacturing & technology HQ

1990

PC assembly begins in West Dublin temporary premises

1991

Construction begins on Fab 10 facility

1994

Fab 10 officially opens. Pentium® processor production is ramped

1995

Construction begins on Fab 14 facility

1998

Fab 14 officially opened

2000

Intel announces Fab 24 project to come on stream in 2004

2003

Fab Operations introduces 0.13 micron technology – a $200m investment

2014

25 years in Ireland

2013

Designed & Made in Ireland - Quark SoC X1000

2011

Work begins on a $500m upgrade at the Leixlip plant

2006

Fab 24-2 is officially opened

2004

Intel announces $2bn investment in Fab24-2. Fab 24 is officially opened

